A message from Miss Angela

I would like to take this opportunity to thank all parents and pupils for their support this year and also to welcome all new pupils and parents to the dance school.

The standard of examination results has improved yet again so well done for your commitment and dedication. Keep up the hard work. We will be holding exams again in February before starting on the dance routines for our next show performance in 2013. More details at the bottom of this newsletter.

From all of us at the Angel School of Dance - Merry Christmas and a prosperous 2012!

Bringing the West End to Chepstow!

As I am sure you will all agree, improving on our 2010 show is going to be a challenge. However, we are always working to improve each performance and 2013 will be no exception.

Plans for our next show performance are now well under way. The music has been chosen and we are now looking at costume ideas. We want to bring a little West End & Las Vegas magic to Chepstow. 2013 will have masses of sparkle and glitz!

We are going to move away from our usual format of grouping each grade/stage together. This time we will be mixing up the grades with a focus on selecting the dancers who best fit the music and choreography, regardless of age. All pupils from Grade/Stage 1 up will have the opportunity to perform and wear fabulous costumes. We will keep you updated of our progress throughout 2012 as you learn your dance routines.

As some of you know, our jazz classes always increase tenfold around the time of the show, which can make it very difficult to work out dance routines never quite knowing how many performers there will be. As a result of this we are asking all those of you who wish to perform a jazz routine (and any friends you may have who may wish to do the same), to commit to attending all classes from March 2012. We will be splitting the classes into three or four groups at this time at which point the numbers will be finalised.
